Pupil Dilation

You are strongly urged to have your pupils dilated today. Dilation involves placing drops in your eyes to enlarge the pupil size. This service is offered at no extra charge. When an eye is dilated, we are able to get a much broader view of the inside of the eye. This aids us in determining if diseases such as macular degeneration, cataracts, glaucoma, or tumors are present. In addition, it allows us to see if there is damage to the retina such as holes or tears. Side effects of dilation may include but are not limited to increased sensitivity to light, slight blurring of your distance vision, and inability to focus close up. The effects generally last from 2 to 4 hours. Dilation is required yearly for patients with diabetes and hypertension, and may be recommended during the examination, dependent upon the doctor's findings.

I understand by choosing NO to dilation drops that I relieve my doctor and Optical Fashions Eye Care Clinic of any liability from failure to diagnose any diseases that would require dilation drops to expose.

Please circle YES to allow dilation or NO to refuse.
